

Clerk was instructed to call IMRF and check on total for city employees we will have to pay this year. Discussion was held on the retirement and it was decided we would need a tax levy to be able to afford it. Watson said we could levy the full amount. Cravens made motion to insert figure in appropriations ordinance as calculated by IMRF to pay initial cost for employees into the Municipal Retirement, seconded by Carr. Roll call vote approved.

Discussion was held on ballpark, there needs to be a curfew, because of so much vandalism and noise. It was decided to put a 12:00p.m. curfew on the Ball diamonds only, this does not include the Tennis Courts. No alcohol to be allowed in the park. Birk mad motion for the curfew, seconded by Carr. Roll call vote approved.

Budget hearing to be June 16, 1980, at 7:00 p.m.
