Visitors - George Miller - Bill Norris - Cal Vonnahmen - Briarwood residents - Richard Sinclair - Jim and Bev Cummings - Paul Crane and Gary Lewis. R. Sinclair, 106 Lakewood, complained of a neighborhood disturbance occurring across the street from his residence. This takes place between 9:00 p.m. and 1:00 a.m. and usually involves 4-5 cars racing engines, loud music and throwing trash in yards. Girls live in the subdivision but the boys do not. Parents have been made aware of the disturbance. They were told to get a vehicle description, license number, notify the police and sign a complaint against the youth.
